Accompanied Baggage

Is the set of traveler's articles that are taken to the countries of their route or destination, in quantities and values that do not presume commercial purposes (Article 188 RLGA).

The traveler is authorized to introduce the following items without payment of customs duties as accompanied baggage:

1. USED ARTICLES: clothing and personal belongings, books, magazines, printed matter of all characters, a photographic machine, a portable computer, a video camera and accessories, a tape recorder, a radio recorder or a radio receiver, a cell phone, sporting goods, a musical instrument, children's car, wheelchair for invalids and other goods for personal orthopedic use.
2. NEW ARTICLES: Articles of strict personal use or non-commercial personal consumption up to a value of USD 1,000 (one thousand USD dollars), with the following limitations:
 - Up to 3 liters of alcoholic beverages.
 - Up to 400 cigarettes.
 - Up to 50 cigarettes or 500 grams of chopped tobacco up.

Note: All the items that are not detailed in numerals 1 and 2, or that exceed their franchise of USD 1,000 (One thousand US Dollars), are subject to the payment of customs taxes.

IMPORTANT

All checked Baggage and/or articles subject to the customs taxes payment that are not declared in this Statement, could be nationalized after rectification of numeral II of this Statement and the payment of the customs violation as a result of the customs offense commission established in article 188 of the Regulations to the General Customs Law, as long as the goods have been identified during customs control within the custom regime framework of the passenger in the primary zone.

The Accompanied Baggage franchise will be applied, as long as a period of more than ninety (90) days has elapsed since the last entry into the country.
